TRUTH OF STATEMENT That Breckenridge Told Him That Wilson Had Eliminated a Postscript.

Boston, Oct. 29,-A reaffirmation of the truth of his statement that Henry Breckenridge, former assistant secreary of war, had told him that President Wilson had eliminated a post-script from the second Lusitania note, after several members of his cabinet threatened to resign if it were includ-ed, was made today by Dr. Charles H. Bailey, a professor at the Tufts Med-

Dr. Bailey was quoted last night in a letter read at a political meeting in Somerville by Senator Lodge as having had a conversation with Mr. Brecken ridge on a train from San Francisco last July, in which the former assist-ant secretary of war made the alleged assertion regarding the postscript.

According to a statement issued by the republican state committee, Dr. Earley replied tonight to an inquiry he has received from the Philadelphia Public Ledger that his letter as by Senator Lodge was "a fair and not at all exaggerated" story of his con-

The committee's statement added: "Dr. Bailey said in his reply that he expected there would be denials all around, but that he affirmed the truth of his letter and called attention to ist and progressive groups, denounced the fact that Breckenridge had made no denial of the most important feature of the letter, which said that President Wilson, without the knowledge of ment of the preventative arrest was any member of his cabinet except Sec-referred to a commission of 21 mem-retary Bryan, had added a postscript to the Lusitania note saying that the German government was not to put too serious an interpretation on the words

Omit no word or act. "Dr. Bailey was introduced to Breck-enridge on the train. He had never seen the gentleman before, he said, but, finding they were omccupying compartments in the same sleeping car, naturally conversed considerably with him on the way east. This talk on politics did not occur until the second day after they left San Franrtion, was pronounced to be cisco, after an acquaintance of about the owner estimated its 36 hours."
